The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, September 22. 1713.

From the Imperial Camp at Muhlberg, Sept. 18.

'WE have Intelligence that 'the Marshal de Villars 'expects to Day the 'Return of an Express 'which he had sent to Court; so that 'his Designs will soon break out. In the 'mean while, on the 16th Instant he 'caused great Part of his Infantry to pass the 'Rhine at Fort-Louis; and the Enemy 'have advanced even beyond the River 'Kinzing, where they now are: They 'have taken Post at Offenbourg, and give 'out that they will fortify that Place and 'put it into a State of Defence. The 16th 'General Vaubonne sent Advice from the 'Black Forrest, that the 13th of this Month '32 Battallions and 80 Squadrons had pas-'sed the Rhine at Fort-Kehl. None of 'the French Troops have yet passed at Bri-'sac, but 'tis believed the Body which has 'cantoned a good while thereabouts, will 'pass there. 'Tis doubted whether any of 'the Enemy's Troops will pass at Hunnin-'ghen. As the Enemy have not posted 'themselves along the Murch, where there 'has been no forraging yet, and do con-'sequently deprive themselves of a great 'deal of Forrage, 'tis believed they have 'not passed the Rhine to lye still, but de-'sign to undertake something. Those who 'imagine they will attack Fribourg, 'give for a Reason that they are cove-'red by the Valley of Kinzing: But 'others considering how much the Season 'is advanced, and the little Haste the Ene-'my have made hitherto for an Enterprize 'of such Length, suppose they have formed 'some Design on the Lines. Whatever be 'their View, Prince Eugene of Savoy has 'sent Order to General Vaubonne, that in 'Case he cannot hinder the Enemy's De-'sign on Fribourg, he shall put into the 'Place 2 Majors-General and 10 Regiments 'of Imperialists, in Addition to the 6 Re-'giments which are there already: At the 'same time Orders have been given for a 'vigorous Defence, even to the last Extremi-'ty, and the Place is furnished with all 'things necessary for that end. P. S. Just 'now comes Advice, that all the Enemy's 'Troops which are on this Side of the Rhine 'are drawn together near Wildstedt on the 'Kinzing, except some Troops of the King's 'Houshold which still remain at Stolhoffen.

London, September 22.

A Mail which arrived Yesterday from France, brought the Paris Letter of Sept. 25. N. S. advising as follows.

Paris, Sept. 25. They write from Strasbourg the 16th of this Month, that the Marshal de Villars was returned thither the 14th, after having caused his Army to encamp near Offenbourg, where is the general Rendezvous, and that the Marshal de Bezons was on the March to Fort-Louis with the Princes and 30 Battallions and 40 Squadrons of his Troops, there to pass the Rhine likewise: The rest of his Troops remain in the Lines of Lauterbourg. This makes it judged that the Marshal de Villars has great Projects in View. 'Tis advised from the Camp before Barcelona the 7th Instant, that the Rebels having made a Sally on the King's Army, were repulsed with the Loss of 2 or 300 Men; and that the Duke de Popoli having received 54 Cannon and 22 Mortars with Abundance of other warlike Stores, was preparing to attack the Place in Form. Three Spanish Gallies had taken in the Heighth of Mataro, after a very hard Fight of 7 Hours, two Ships of Barcelona returning from the Levant, one of 22 Guns, the other of 18, and each carrying 80 Men, having on board 8000 Quintals of Corn, with large Stores of other Provisions and Ammunition; which had caused a great Consternation in Barcelona. Letters from Madrid of the 10th tell us, they had an Account from the Army before Barcelona, that the Rebels had cut off the Head of the Governour of Fort Montjouy, whom they suspected of a Design to deliver up the Place to the King's Troops. The King of Spain had conferred the Order of Knighthood of St. Jago on Don Baltasar de Guevara, Commadore of the 3 Gallies which took the forementioned 2 Barcelona-Ships. P. S. Letters dated Yesterday (the 24th) from Fontainebleau, advise, that M. Boissieux Nephew of the Marshal de Villars was just arrived with the News, that the said Marshal had forced the Intrenchment of General Vaubonne, which was defended by 20000 Men, and routed him with all his Troops, so that he was obliged to save himself in the Mountains: We lost but few Men in the Action; We are expecting the Particulars.

Plymouth, Sept. 18. On the 16th arrived the Susanna and Hannah of and for London from Barbadoes. Yesterday came in the Experiment periment from the Weſtward, and the Wilſon of London from Dunkirk, in Ballaſt. This Day arrived the King Solomon of and for London, Peter Winter Maſter, and the Scipio of Briſtol, Iſaac Edwards, both from Jamaica.
